

Asia Innovation Forum 2007

Innovation Japan

Toshio OBI

Professor,

Waseda University

President,

International Academy of CIO

IT New Reform Strategy

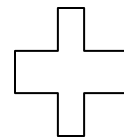

Year 2006-2010

Post [e-Japan Strategy] 2001-2005

Realization of Ubiquitous Network Society
(Anytime Anywhere Anything)

Reform

Deregulation & Barrier Free

ICT

Network Infrastructure

Investment for technology & Young people

Growth by Structural
Reform

User oriented

International
Competitiveness

International
Contribution

IT New Reform Strategy

- Agenda for Structural Reform by ICT
 - World No.1 Usage of e-Gov Activities
 - Disaster Reduction by Disaster Information via Digital Broadcasting/Communication
 - Establishment of ICT Infrastructure
 - Human Resource Development for CIO
 - Japan as World Class Contributor

“Innovation Japan ”Policies to be Implemented in the Short Term from 2006

Global Environmental Issues as a Driver for Economic Growth and International Contribution

Doubling the Investment for the Next Generation(including investment for the younger generation and expanding ICT use)

Investment Increase for Science and Technology to Ensure the Innovation 25 Strategy Delivers Real Value

Innovation Review –Regulations, Social Systems, Norms and Rules

Internal Government Mechanisms to Make Japan the World’s Leading Nation of Innovation

University Reform

Japanese Economic Growth with Innovation 25 Strategy

Innovation & challenge

- Information sharing as integrated approach
- Eco-System for social change
- User generated community under Ubiquitous society
- IPR strategy for Innovation
- Comprehensive Science & Technology
- University as center of excellence & cluster for Innovation
- Innovative Venture to promote economic growth

Expanded Roles of CIO

CEO

CIO

(Chief Information Officer)

CTO (Chief Tech Officer)

BPR, Hard / Software

CRO (Chief Risk Officer)

Risk Management

CAO (Chief Asset Officer)

Investment on asset

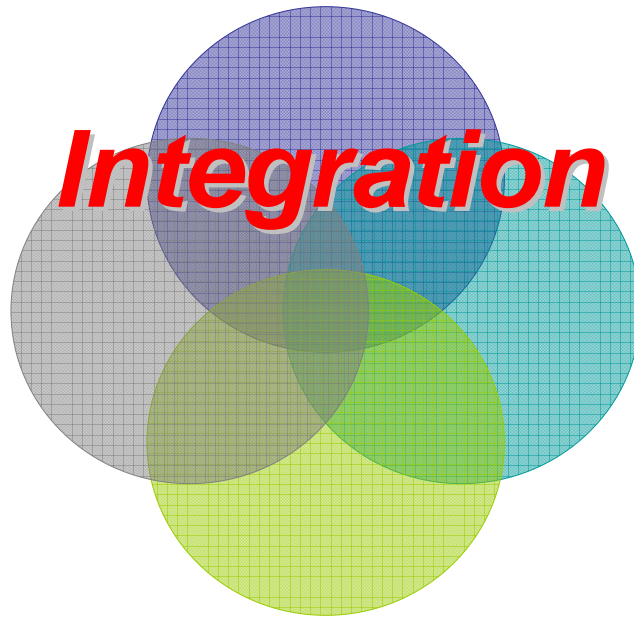

CKO (Chief Knowledge Officer)

Knowledge Management

New CIO for Innovation

Information

Innovation

Intelligence

Investment

Thank you!

고마워요

Toshio OBI

obi.waseda@waseda.jp